

Mainstream Consultancy

Finance Department has offered the following consultancy services:

- In July 2009, the Technical University of Kenya had the first batch of the programmes of study approved by Senate at the University of Nairobi. Until late 2012 year, the University of Nairobi finance department has engaged its financial services and assistance to the university including payroll processing, salary payments and other finance related advice
- The Finance Department has also offered financial system advice and case study services of sage accpac to Jomo Kenyatta University of Agriculture and Technology