

Vision, Mission & Core Values

The finance function is central to any organization. The strength or weakness of the finance function will mean the difference between failure and success of any entity.

The University of Nairobi Finance department derives authority from Part IV, Section 30-33, of the University of Nairobi Act, 2012, and other statutory and regulatory provisions.

The department is charged with the responsibility of designing and implementing sound and effective systems for the management of University resources.

Our Vision

To be a leading finance service provider offering the highest level of service to university consistent with the international standards and regulatory guidelines.

Our Mission

To pursue financial management functions of the university that provides leadership in the area of financial services, resource rationalization and professional consultancy to aid efficient and effective achievement of university's corporate plan.

Our Core values

In order to realize the above vision, and mission, certain shared values shall be nurtured. The Department shall observe the following core values:

ÉEspouse the virtues of truth, integrity, honesty, tolerance, professionalism.

ÉTeam work and meritocracy.

ÉUphold the professional ethics .

ÉBe creative and innovative .

ÉEnsure openness and transparency in all its dealings and operations .

ÉRespect the beliefs and values of others in service delivery.

ÉHave the courage to initiate and adapt to change.

ÉValuing all employees through empowerment, development and recognition.

ÉOptimizing the use of resources through responsible stewardship.

ÉProviding a valued service to customers and stakeholders in a courteous and responsive manner.

