Data Center Facility Specialist Job Summary

Data Center Facility Specialists are in charge of the installations, testing, and maintenance of all data center sites. They install, design, and maintain customer Data Center equipment, access provider network equipment, and supporting functions to meet the requirements of the project. Specialists may help other internal departments within the organization for installing hardware, cabling, and other assignments, including asset management.

Specialists must possess extensive technical knowledge. They should have solid verbal and written communication skills. Specialists need to have adept analytical and problem-solving skills. In addition, they should be good at customer service.

To apply, send your CV & resume as well as three professional references in PDF format to hr@huawei.com

Data Center Facility Specialist Job Responsibilities

- Develop creative approaches to reducing operational costs while improving overall data center efficiency
- Assess/certify the power, cooling, space, and weight sizing requirements for new activities.
- Ensure that environmental and safety standards are consistently met, identifying problems and making repairs quickly
- In emergency situations or abnormal conditions, you manage data center performance issues and outages to minimize the recovery time from failures
- Work with support service vendors to resolve conflicts and issues
- Evaluate equipment logs and see to it that there are no unresolved problems and issues
- Monitor activities, procedure, and utilization within the data center in order to maintain proper IT policies and to comply with the regulation

Certifications

Earning professional certification may help data center facility specialists find employment or advance their careers. A number of different certification options are offered by Huawei and other organizations. Certification is usually earned by passing one or more examinations.

Some types of certification that are specific to data center facility specialists include:

- Huawei Certified ICT Professional: Data Center Facility.

Data Center Facility Specialist Job Requirements

- A bachelor's degree in a computer-related field
- Willingness to work on-call in the event of an emergency
- Good analytic and problem solving skills
- Ability to work under close supervision, as well as the ability to take independent initiative when needed